Lynn Gertenbach

Tuesday, March 2, Dinner/Demo Artist

Sentinals in Spring

Carmel By The Sea

American Impressionist, Lynn was born in Racine, WI. Scholarships enabled her to graduate from the Colorado Institute of Art, with continued studies at Layton Art Institute, Milwaukee; Art Center school in Los Angeles; and UCLA. She also tutored with Sergei Bongart, Phillip Gilkerson, Bernard Dunstan in England and Arul Raj in India.

During her nearly 40 years as a professional painter, Lynn has traveled around the world five times to paint and exhibit. She has made numerous trips to Europe and South America. In 1980 The Instituto Cultural Norte Americano sponsored a traveling exhibition of Lynn's paintings to three cities in Peru. For the past twelve years Lynn has traveled to Japan to appear at her biannual shows there.

Lynn has painted portraits of many noted persons such as Maestro Zubin Mehta, the Maharaja of Navanagar, Maestro Ravi Shankar, many actors and corporate CEO's. She has received numerous gold medal awards and received the Life Achievement Award (Hall of Fame Inductee) from the Colorado Institute of Art. In addition, Lynn also won First Prize in the Landscape Category of the 2002 Autumn Salon Show held at Edenhurst Gallery in Beverly Hills, CA.

Lynn was invited to exhibit at the historic California Club, which included a purchase of one of her new works for the Club's permanent collection. Her work has been in several group exhibitions in the Laguna museum of Art, the Carnegie museum, The Fredrick Wiesman Museum, Pepperdine University the Pacific Asia Museum and the Isetan Museum, Tokyo.

Lynn was a guest artist for two years at the Artists of America exhibition in Denver. She has taught workshops and judged shows in many cities in the U.S., and serves on the board of advisors for the California Art Club.

In 1999 a hardcover book was published in Japan on her work called Cherished Memories. She is also featured in the 2003 book The Enchanted Isle an historic overview of plein air painters who painted in Catalina Island.

Lynn Gertenbach is a Signature member of the Oil Painters of America, the California Art Club and the Plein Air Painters of America.

Reservations Please...

Our Dinner & Demos have become very popular with attendance typically nearing capacity of the venue. At some point, we may not be able to accomodate those without reservations. If you plan on attending a Demo, please make sure to call in your reservations to (805) 379-5655 or E-Mail to wlvag@hotmail.com.

If you plan on attending most or all of the Dinner/Demos, please request that your name be added to the permanent reservations list. Those on the permanent list are asked to cancel their reservations should they be unable to attend a specific meeting.

Please be sure to sign up for a team during this Open Show

Be part of the take-in, hanging, hospitality, clean-up, take-down, reception, or patch and paint teams, even if you do not enter the show this year. Your help will be very appreciated!

The WVAG will only be as successful as our members make it... the more help on these teams, the easier it is for the co-chairpeople that have been working hard behind the scenes for months to make this another great show.

Shel Magnuson (805) 496-2014 will be glad to assist you in finding that perfect spot!

WVAG Open Show calendar as of the printing. Changes or additions may be made afterwards, so please check in advance for the scheduling of featured artists.

Free Paint Brush Seminar (March 22) Lecture will include explanation of new and established brushes and their usage. Attendees will have an opportunity to sample many brushes at a trial table.

Mastering Color, Composition & Light Workshop with Lynn Gertenbach

This three-day workshop for painters, March 25–27, 10 a.m.–4 p.m. To sign up or for more info on Lynn’s workshop, contact Craig Morton at (818) 991-6158 or E-Mail to craigmorton@sbcglobal.net.
